

VOL. V. NO. 309.

CHICAGO, SUNDAY AND MONDAY, DECEMBER 24-25, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

FORTUNES IN SIGHT.

Yesterday's DAILY RACING FORM referred to the vast sums of money involved in the ultimate decision of the stakes now offered by a number of jockey clubs, entries to which will close within a few days. The estimates printed here as to the probable value of these events of the future are roughly made, but in the long run will probably be found to run below rather than above the actual results. The Futurity, as experience has shown, might easily run up to $60000 or more. The figures presented below are certainly encouraging to horse own ers and breeders, and when it is considered that ers and breeders, and when it is considered that the Westchester, Saratoga, St. Lonis, Latonia, Washington, Aqueduct, Nashville and possi-bly two of the Chicago tracks are yet to enter the field with their lists of stakes, it can easily be seen that the aggregate here suggested will be swelled to much more than half a mildollars, nearly all of which is simply fer the spring and early summer meetings. The stakes now offered for the consideration of owners and breeders are of the following estimated gross value:

CAPTAIN REES IN ACTION.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., December 23 .- The stable of J. E. Murphy together with jockey Kitley was suspended today from all privileges of the track, for a period of thirty days, on account of the inconsistent running of the horse Moncreith. The stable of J. H. Jones and jockey A Mc Intyre were also suspended, pending investiga-tion of the running of the horse St. Lorenzo in his previous race at this track.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The highly bred broodmares, belonging to the estate of the late Simeon G. Reid, were sold at anction in New York Wednesday night for very good prices, but the imported stallion Duncombe did not elicit a bid and was necessarily retained. A few horses belonging to other owners were also sold. Prices were as follows: . $1,500

Crisalba, b. m. 1890, by Sir Modred-Col-umbine; Thomas Welch..... Dextrix, b. m, 1891, by Darebin—Lotola; Loline, b m, 1891, by Darebin-Lulu; Thomas Welch

Veronica, b. m., 1891, by Darebin-Verity; Thomas Welch..... Wedding Gift, b. m., 1891, by Sir Modred-Blithesome; A J Stemler

...You Ought to Use...

Our selections, even if they do cost you a triffe more considering the MANY MORE WINNERS we give you and the prices you obtain against them. Commencing with $5. last Monday one of our clients won $875 00, we having given him Inverary II. to run third, and the horse wen at 100 to 1—20 to 1 show. The same day Sister Fox for show also, who ran in that position at 15 to 1. This is a positive fact—that handicap sheet is in the hands of ten different subscribers in this city and we will give you their names and address if you desire so verify this statement. Give us a trial of one week and if we do not convince you, you will be hard to please. Terms $10 00 for six days' selections. Messages ready by 11 a.m. (A good one for Monday sure.)

Yost 6 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; it was a drive for second place. Ed Gartland II.
made a show of his company. It was a weak finish on Meddlesoms. Wood was of little or no help to Lord Neville. He rode him all over the track, but nevertheless the horse came fast in the last eighth when the boy let him down.

Winner—Ch, g, by Onondaga—Sungleam.
Off at the first break to a good start. It was a driving finish. The first two fought it out from the head of the stretch home. Boland took matters too easily when he caught Lackman. Had he gone to work earlier he would have won. Alpen showed improvement and ran his race. Prince Blazes was slew to get going, but closed a big gap at the end. Duke of Middleburg could not extend himself in the going.
Overweights—Star of Bethlehem, 1 pound.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1899 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM'S staff), billiard fig-ures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler) nghts of 1898, with comments (by treorge biler) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Beview) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private informa tion. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general perform ance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Buch service is not solicted, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.
